Prescribed Forms (Customs Arrival Information) Notice 2024

Under rule 3 of the Customs (Arriving Passenger and Crew Declarations) Rules 2018 as amended on 28 March 2024 (the Rules), I, Christine Stevenson, Comptroller of Customs, make this notice.

Customs Arrival Information may be provided in the following ways:

a) For passengers arriving by air:

    i. electronically via the New Zealand Traveller Declaration (NZTD) system; or

    ii. by paper form in the New Zealand Passenger Arrival Card; or

    iii. by paper form in the NZTD paper declaration (air).

b) For passengers and crew members arriving by sea:

    i. electronically via the NZTD system; or

    ii. by paper form in the New Zealand Passenger Arrival Card; or

    iii. by paper form in the NZTD paper declaration (maritime); or

    iv. by paper or electronic format in the Crew (Temporary Arrivals – Cruise) Form (Form 18), if the person is a crew member arriving by cruise ship who is departing with the same ship on its next departure from New Zealand.

The forms specified in this notice are accessible at the following web addresses:

- The NZTD system is accessible at www.travellerdeclaration.govt.nz. This electronic form can be completed through the following web address: https://app.travellerdeclaration.govt.nz/, or via the NZTD mobile application.
